Guidelines for preparation of Question paper for Semester Final Examinations/ Semester Final Make-up Examinations

In order to strengthen the existing system of examination, the Instructor(s) concerned and one more faculty member of the department will set the paper containing questions two times more than the number of questions to be attempted and should cover the entire syllabus of the course(s). The paper so prepared will be handed over to the HOD concerned in a sealed cover 2-3 days prior to date of examination. The HOD and one more senior faculty member of the department will moderate the question paper and ensure that the entire course contents are covered and get the question paper finalized and hand over to the Instructor concerned for conduct of examination. After the examination is over, the evaluation of the answer-books will be done by the other faculty member of the department. The marks given shall be handed over to the Instructor concerned who shall thereafter submit the grades. However, in the department(s) where there are only 2-3 faculty members available and the course(s) is of highly specialized nature, the Instructor concerned will set the question paper containing questions three times more than the questions to be attempted and covering the entire course contents and hand over to the HOD 2-3 days prior to date of examination. The HOD after doing moderation will get the question paper finalized and hand it over to the Instructor concerned for conducting the examination. In such cases the Instructor teaching the course(s) will also evaluate the answer-books and submit the grades. In case where HOD is teaching the course(s), the other senior faculty member of the department will moderate the question papers. At the time of showing the answer books to the students, both the Instructor teaching the course and the person who evaluated the answer books shall be present.

8 Adjustment of Examinations dates

In the event of any break-down or dislocation of the normally academic functioning of the University for whatever reasons, the dates specified as above for pre-final and other examination shall be suitably adjusted by the Dean of the College concerned.

9 Preparation of Examination Schedule

The final examination schedule shall be prepared by the Registrar and notified to the students and staff ten days before the commencement of the examination.

The final examinations once fixed shall not be postponed and nobody should issue orders for such postponement and that no major activity would be scheduled during the period of examination.

16. A Proficiency Examination may also be administered upto a maximum adjustment of 10+1 credit (i.e. limit remains at 10 credits with marginal adjustment of 1 credit) of course work subject to the following conditions:

- i. Such Proficiency Examination(s) shall be administered at the end of the degree programme.
- ii. If a student fails in this proficiency examination he can appear in one more change for a proficiency examination after a lapse of one month. Normally, a student shall not be allowed a third chance for proficiency examination except in the following exceptional circumstances:
 1. That the student has already cleared all other courses with satisfactory performance and is left with only one course in which he failed twice in the proficiency examination.
 2. That he has completed a maximum duration permissible for completion of the degree programme.
- iii. The following procedure shall be observed in granting this third proficiency examination under exceptional circumstances:
 - a. The third time a proficiency examination must be administered after a lapse of two months. The instructor for this proficiency examination should be specifically assigned by the Dean concerned in advance. The Instructor should call the student after a period of one month from the date of earlier proficiency examination and before administering the final examination must give him two or three examinations in the nature of hourly examination to judge whether he has studied well and to ensure that he has been paying full attention to the third proficiency examination.
 - b. These periodically administered examinations will not be marked nor will they count towards the proficiency examination.
 - c. It should be made clear to the student in the order sanctioning proficiency examination for the third time that further chance for proficiency examination or re-registration in the course would not be permissible under any circumstances.
- iv. If a student fails in the second attempt also, he will have to repeat the course.
- v. Such Proficiency Examination(s) shall be given out of the entire course, which the student, could not pass because of any reason including the missing or failure in any hourly, quiz and semester final examination or for other reasons where in the opinion of the Dean the student has sufficient exposure to the subject matter of the course.

$$\text{Formula : Percentage of Marks} = \text{OGPA} \times 100/10$$

$$\text{e.g. if the OGPA is 6.000 then the percentage of marks would be } 6.000 \times 100/10 = 60\%$$

3 While converting the credits of the course from Semester to Trimester system anyone of the following alternatives may be followed without any disadvantage to the students.

i OGPA shall be calculated without any conversion i.e. Trimester credits and points and Semester credits & Points shall be taken as such for calculating the OGPA.

OR

ii The Semester credits may be converted into Trimester credits and OGPA may be worked out.

OR

iii Trimester credits may be converted into Semester credits.

4 For purposes of Academic Probation–Dropping, readmission, only CGPA will be taken into account.

Minimum Credit to be completed in a year

5 Each undergraduate student must complete a minimum of 24 credits during a year consisting of two semesters.

33 Uniformity of Standards for Examinations

1 When a course is being taught by more than one Instructor the common course work, evaluation, grading & final marking shall be on a common standard for all the examinations. They shall mutually consult each other, the HOD and the Dean in this regard.

2 When more than one Instructor(s) are teaching the same subject to the same class in various groups, they shall maintain the uniformity of standards for the same class and for the same course examined at the same time through a common examination conducted by all the Instructors together and grades given on the basis of consensus. If the Instructors are unable to reach the consensus, they shall give marks separately according to their own judgment. The grades shall be based on the average of the marking by all the Instructors.

3 a If a HOD is satisfied or has reasons to believe that marking /grading in a particular course has been abnormal, he shall submit a detailed report to the Dean of the College concerned recommending re-evaluation or re-assessment of the answer books giving full details of the reasons for his belief that the marking/grading has been abnormal.

b On receiving such a report, the Dean, after such an enquiry or checking as he may deem proper, pass necessary orders on the report.

- 4 Application for scrutiny of results shall be entertained upto seven days after showing the semester final examination answer books to students, after which no such application shall be entertained that is normally after eight days of the start of the semester.
- 5 The result of scrutiny shall be intimated to the Registrar as soon as possible, but in no case later than two weeks from the date of registration.

35 Change of Grades as a Result of Scrutiny

After the grade is revised as a result of scrutiny the Instructor will send the grade, with reasons under which grade has been revised, through his HOD to the Dean, who will examine and forward the same to the office of the Registrar. All such grades revised as a result of scrutiny will be forwarded to the Vice-chancellor after the last date of scrutiny. Necessary correction in the students' report card would be made after the approval of the Vice-chancellor is received.

36 Retention of the Examination Answer Books

- 1 Instructors must retain the answer books with them till at least the last date for revision of the grades was over and show the answer book to the students to understand their mistakes after the commencement of the next semester.
- 2 The Instructors shall announce the date, time and place for showing the semester final examination answer-books to the students, after reopening of the University in the following semester in the last lecture of the class. Any change in the date so fixed shall be notified to the students immediately after reopening of the University in the following semester.
- 3 After the last date for revision of the grades was over and the answer books had been shown to the students, the Instructor may pass on the answer-books to the HOD concerned for disposal.
- 4 Marks obtained by students in pre-final and semester final examinations should be shown to students, explaining the mistakes committed by them and the reasons for deducting marks.
